About 2 o'clock a dray from the Riverside Mill, upon which there were twenty keys of nails, was standing on the river bank ready to be unloaded. The horse attached to the dray started forward, stambled on the adge of the bank and rolled over into the water insued. and rolled over into the water, inmediately under the bow of the steamer, carrying his load with him. The animal, which belonged to the Riverside company, was drowned. The dray and nails will probably be recovered.

RALEGAD BRIDGE DESTROYED BY THE CREEK ICE.—Since the river ice broke up and floated off, there have been Judications that the heavy ice in the creek ice broke a week or two ago as far down as Reymann's brewery, where it gorged and remained stationary until yesterday morning. The late thawing spell had its effect in loosening the gorge, and about 8 o'clock yesterday morning the ice commenced running out. The heavy blocks of ice came sweeping down the stream in one came sweeping down the stream in one mmense mass of solidity, and struck against the trestles of the wooden bridge against the trestles of the wooden bridge spanning the creek just below Main street with such force as to carry everything before them. The timbers composing the structure were prushed into kindling wood, and fell into the water and libated down against the B.& O. depot. Even the irons and rails upon the bridge were bent and twisted so that they were made worthless. COMMUNICATION FROM THE MAYOR. The following communication from the Mayor was read

To the Council of the City of Wheeling To the Council of the City of Wheeling:
During the last Council's term the matter of a suit instituted against the city by John Robrecht for $12,000 damages was referred to the Committee on Claims for settlement with power to act. The committeem and the counsel for Robrecht compromised the suit, the city to pay $750 in full of all claims. Some delay occurred by suggestions served on me as Mayor, and also by my insisting that taxes due the city should be deducted from the amount to be paid.

The counsel for Robrecht succeeded in stranging argumoval of the suggestions, and also agreed to pay the taxes, but not until Saturiay afternoon the 25th, after the new Council had been organized; and as all orders not executed die with the Council which made such orders, the money will not be paid. Messrs. Deiters, Goodfellow and Waterhouse, of the Second Branch, were on the former committee, and can no doubt inform you if the compromise was a absimble one for the city; if you cessary to renew the order to pay the money, and I append a resolution at the end of this communication.

BELLAIRE LOCALS.—The crazy man who Bell.Ailis Localis.—The crazy man who caused a sensation in the Presbyterian Church, some time ago, by asking for employment, and who afterward got so excited at one of Col. Bowen's temperance meetings that he had to let off steam by breaking the windows of several salcons, is now in the county infirmary. Mr. Oswald, of the Belmont House, kept him these wall he was no into the lecture for owald, of the Belianot House, kept him there until he was put into the lockup for breaking the saloon windows. He could not tell his name nor where was his home, he had forgotten everything; but the other day he wrote to Mr. Oswald asking him to send him his bundle, which he had left, and named everything in it, so his memory must be improving. He says himself that he hopes to be able in a short time to remember where he came from and what remember where he came from and wha his name is. He seemed to be an intelli-gent man and spoke at the church like gent man and spoke at the church like a practised speaker, if not an educated man; but he surprised those who asked him what kind of employment he wanted by saying that he thought he could kindle fires and tend to horses. No doubt there are friends who would be happy to find him, but there seems no clue to find them by.

THE success which so frequently attends The success which so frequently attends the investment of a couple of dollars in the Louisiana State Lottery is becoming the subject of general-comment, and everywhere the laudable ambition of people to add to their wealth stimulates a trial of luck which can be accompanied by no evil result, and oftentimes has a very happy termination. Some one must win, and the reader should see to it if he is not the happy man. For information address M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692; New Orleans, La.

PROBABLY NO one preparation has received so much praise from its patrons, nor is so deserving of commendation as Hall's Hair Renewer! We but enho the voice of the millions who have used its when we pronounce it the Best Hair Dressing in the world. It stands unrivalled. Those who are affected with diseases of the scalp accompanied with itching or irritation, find relief and renewal in this invaluable remedy. When the hair is inclined to fail off, a moderate use of the Benewer will strengthen the roots of the hair, and preserve it, and if it exhibits a tendency to turn gray it will restore the natural color.—Fullon (Mo.) The prevalence of Diphtheria among the children, and the fatal results so often attending the disease, should bring to the mind of every head of a family that prevention of the disease is what they should look to. The general good health, the freedom from all exposure to the disease, and above all, the prompt and active measures to be taken on appearance of first symptoms, should enlist the attention of all parents. Lereson's Chirative, so successful in euring Sore Throat, will be found an excellent remedy for arresting and consuccessful in curing Sore Throat, will be found an excellent remedy for arresting and con-trolling Diphtheria in its early stages, and should be kept in every household of children, to be used assoon as there is first indication of soreness or uncomfortable feeling in the throat.
